

ECONOMY: Building a strong economy

Congressman Carnahan has been working to strengthen the economy and the middle class. He believes that to stimulate the economy, tax relief should be targeted to those who truly need it.

Read More

EDUCATION: Investing in education and America's future

As a nation, Congressman Russ Carnahan believes we must better prepare our children for the competitive global environment. Bold investments in education will help build the world-class education system that our economy needs and our children deserve.

Read More

ENERGY: Promoting alternative energy and energy independence

Congressman Russ Carnahan has become a leader in energy policy and believes that we must direct revenue to research and development programs in order to find and implement alternative and renewable fuels that do not lead to global warming and provide for a strong economy.

Read More

FOREIGN POLICY: Restoring America's leadership and reputation abroad

As member of the Foreign Affairs Committee, Congressman Russ Carnahan has urged the U.S. to fully engage with our allies around the world, and utilize our membership in international organizations, such as the United Nations, to effectively advance U.S. interests around the world.

Read More

HEALTH CARE: Providing quality, affordable health care

Congressman Russ Carnahan has been working to address the needs of the 47 million uninsured Americans, including 770,000 uninsured Missourians, strengthen the Medicare system, and fund cutting-edge research into cures for diseases.

Read More

TRANSPORTATION: Building a strong transportation system for the future

As a member of the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee Congressman Carnahan believes maintaining an efficient, multi model transportation system is critical to the St. Louis region.

Read More

